CALL FOR PAPERS

The 11th International Conference on Natural Language Processing and Knowledge Engineering (NLP-KE'16) will be held on Dec. 14-16, 2016, in Okinawa, Japan. Prospective authors are invited to submit papers reporting original and previously unpublished work.

Papers are to be submitted electronically, as PDF files. Only full papers received before the deadline will be considered for review. The review process will be double-blind. Please do not show authors' identity information in any way in your paper.

Paper submissions should be in the IJAI format which can be downloaded from the journal website (<http://aia-i.com/ijai/aiastyle/MSWord.zip>, <http://aia-i.com/ijai/aiastyle/Latex2e.zip>).

All accepted papers will be published by the International Journal of Advanced Intelligence. Some papers will be recommended to one of the following international journals: Enterprise Information Systems, Expert Systems, Information Systems Management, Chinese Journal of Electronics, and China Communications.

A "Best Paper Award" will be conferred to the author(s) of a full paper presented at the conference, selected by the Program Committee Chairs and Conference Chairs based on the best combined ratings of paper reviewing, assessed by the Program Committee, and paper presentation quality, assessed by session chairs at the conference venue.
