CMA INTERNATIONAL MEAT
TRADE COLLABORATION CLUB

Background

China Meat Association (CMA) was founded in May of 1992, which is a nationwide Non-governmental social organization represents the meat sector in China to promote the healthy and sustainable development of the meat industry. The meat species includes pig meat, beef, sheep meat, poultry and eggs. The membership of China Meat Association covers the whole industry chain in the fields of animal husbandry, slaughtering, meat processing, cold chain logistics, meat import and export, distribution and sales, machinery and equipment, meat ingredients, packaging materials and other related sectors. China Meat Association is the Vice Presidential membership of the International Meat Secretariat (IMS).

With booming demand for meat and steady growth of meat imports, China has attracted more and more international meat suppliers to explore the Chinese market and actively cooperate with Chinese meat enterprises in trade, technology, investment and related services. In order to deepen the cooperation between China and foreign countries in meat trade, strengthen the common understanding of standards, enhance technical exchanges, and promote the healthy and orderly development of international meat trade, China Meat Association (CMA) decides to establish the "International Meat Trade Collaboration Club". The club's office is set up in China Meat Association which is headquartered in Beijing.

The CMA International Meat Trade Collaboration Club will provide information exchange, consultation and related services on a club membership basis. We welcome meat suppliers, producers, traders and related industry organizations from all over the world to join the International Meat Trade Collaboration Club of China Meat Association!
